Abstract
Deliverable 8.2.1 will describe the initial exploitation plan and will consider possible business opportunities, which could help drive the technical results of MultiMatch towards profitable exploitation. In this preliminary version, we first set the scene by describing the current context of the Cultural Heritage market, and then provide just an outline of the structure and expected contents of the deliverable. The final version will be ready at month 12.